All members of SCE can search and find millions of full text academic articles and books in a one stop search engine.
The search in the Library Catalog can be done anywhere, anytime and from any device.
Enter the SCE homepage
Under Libraries click on Library Catalog
Sign in with your SCE username and password.
Type your search here. It can be the book's name, the author's name or any other relevant keyword (keywords must be in English only).
For a more specific search click on ADVANCED SEARCH
In the advanced search you can search by title, author or subject.
You can filter your search by campus.
On the left side you can find many other filters, such as:
- Full text online
- Articles
- Books
- Creation Date
Each page shows 10 results of your search. For more results scroll down and click on LOAD MORE RESULTS.
After clicking the book's name, you will be able to find details regarding its location in the library and the number of copies available.
Checked out from – means all the copies of this book are on loan
Full text online/Online access – means that this book exists in an electronic copy (eBook)
Click here to view or download the eBook
Links may look like this
Or like this
There are additional unique databases for each department
Information about the library can be found in the SCE website under Libraries.
Still confused? Ask the library staff for more information.