The new SCE School of Architecture and Engineering Arts will educate tens of thousands of students in the heart of the old city of Beersheva, near the city science park.

Students of Architecture, Visual Communications, Product Design and Interior Design studies will become proficient in engineering as an integral part of their academic degree.

For more information, please contact: amart@sce.ac.il